Gen. Noyes' Meeting in Hillsboro.

By some mistake of the State Central Committee, it seems that the meeting for Gen. Noyes, in this place, Sept. 4th, was appointed for a night meeting. Efforts are being made by our Central Committee to have it changed to a day meeting, and the change will no doubt be made.

We send out with this week's paper, prospectus for the Campaign News. Let every good Republican take one of them and get all the subscribers he can in his neighborhood. Remember—only 25 cents for 2 months, singly or in clubs.

Liberty Tp. S. S. Union.

Meets next Sunday afternoon, 20th, at 3 o'clock, at Pike Chapel. All are invited.

W. M. MEER, V. P.

The interesting communication of "L."

on Turnpike connections with Hillsboro, will appear next week.

Get up clubs for the Campaign News in every township. Only 25 cents for 2 months, singly or in clubs.

Cincinnati Conference meets this year at Dayton, on the 26th of this month.

Der WEATHER—August seems determined to make up for the comparative coolness of July. The last few days have been regular scorers, the mercury ranging from 90 to 96 in the shade. Monday last is said to have been the hottest day of the season.

We recommend our aspiring readers to the verses on first page, as expressive of their feelings under the circumstances.

Subscribe for the Campaign News—only 25 cents for 2 months.

See ads'ts in "Wants and For Sale" column.

WHEAT WANTED.—See advertisement of Messrs. Jolly and Bumgarner.

We have lately been using a very good article of Writing Ink, manufactured by Prof. L. McKibben, of this place.

The next Ohio State Fair commences at Springfield, Sept. 23.

THE FAIR pamphlets are out, and are being distributed by the Secretary, Mr. Jno. W. Ellis. Copies may be obtained of him or either of the other officers of the Society.

The cellar for Strauss & Bro's new building was a pretty expensive job. The workmen had to blast through about three or four feet of rock, to get the required depth—7½ feet. It is now nearly ready for the walls.

The Teachers' Institute.

Commenced its session on Monday last, with a pretty fair attendance—some 30 to 40 teachers being present.

Prof. Cope land being prevented by other engagements from taking part in the Institute, Prof. Yarnall, Superintendent of the Greenfield Union Schools, has been engaged in his place, and is now lecturing and teaching daily.

Prof. E. G. Smith and H. S. Doggett, of our Union Schools, are also engaged in conducting the exercises.

We hope the teachers of the county will generally avail themselves of the opportunities offered by the Institute, for improvement in their profession, as well as for forming each other's acquaintance, and comparing notes.

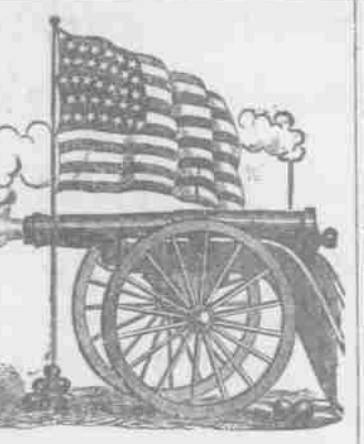

On Thursday (this) afternoon at 3 o'clock an address will be made by Mrs. A. C. Stockton, and on Friday afternoon by Prof. Ed. G. Smith. The sessions are held at the Union School House.

Campaign subscribers are coming in handsomely. We are indebted to friends in Dodson, Newmarket, Madison, and other townships, for clubs and single subscribers. Roll them in!

Judge Meek, of Hillsborough, is a candidate for Judge of this Judicial District. He is the gentleman who as Probate Judge and Chairman of the Republican County Committee, gave his official printing to a Democratic newspaper. That is sufficient, Judge Meek can stand aside.—(Chil. Gazette.)

Why, brother Bond, you don't understand the tactics of the Judge. "Strategy, my boy!" Don't you see that if he can get a few Democratic votes by feeding the Democratic organ with his official paper, it will so much clear gain—because he thinks the Republicans will vote for his boy? We fear, however, since you have "let the cat out of the bag," you may have spoiled his little game, as some of the Republicans may object to voting for a gentleman who turns the cold shoulder to his political friends, for the sake of currying favor with his enemies.

FAREWELL SERMON.—Rev. J. P. Matley, of the M. E. Church, will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday next, the third year of his pastorate being about to expire. He would be gladly retained by his congregation, if the rules of the Church did not forbid a further extension of his term.

GEN. E. F. NOYES

Republican Candidate for Governor.

WILL ADDRESS THE PEOPLE

At Hillsborough, Ohio,

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 4.

Other speakers will also be present, who will be announced hereafter.

Republicans, spread the word, and get ready to attend the Meeting.

Examination of Teachers—Time Changed.

The Co. Board of Examiners will meet on Saturday of this week, instead of the 26th, as was announced last week. The next meeting here will be on the 2d of September.

Consistent.

Doesn't it look very consistent and proper, for the Chairman of the Republican Central Committee to give his official printing to the Democratic press and then ask Republicans to promote him to a higher office? We don't know which to admire most—the beautiful consistency, or the surpassing modesty of some people.

A Pleasant Affair.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week, our fellow-citizen, James H. Thompson, Esq., and his excellent lady, gave a supper in picnic style, to the men who had just finished the work of grading and Macadamizing East street, which runs through the property of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The picnic was given in the beautiful grove near Jackson Springs, where a long table had been erected for the occasion. A large number of invited guests also partook of the good things so bountifully provided by the hospitable hosts, among whom we noticed our worthy Mayor and honorable Town Council, most of the county officers, besides physicians, lawyers, editors, and other citizens.

After the bonnet repast had been fully discussed to the satisfaction of all, an organization was proposed and effected by appointing Mayor Gardner Chairman and J. L. Boardman Secretary. The Mayor was called on for a speech, and made a few well-timed remarks, which drew forth a happy response from Mr. Thompson, and after a few minutes spent in social conversation, the company dispersed.

The whole affair was a very pleasant one, and did great credit to the hospitality of the kind-hearted and generous host and hostess, who paid this merited compliment to the laborers employed on the public improvement adjoining their property, and which has added so much to the appearance of that part of town.

Home Mutual Life Insurance Company—Prompt Payment of Policy of the Late Joseph A. Lieber, for $3000.

HILLSBOROUGH, OHIO, August 12, 1871.

To the Home Mutual Life Ins. Co., Cincinnati, O:

GENTLEMEN:—Please accept the sincere thanks of myself and children for the prompt manner in which your Company have paid in full the loss sustained by us, on Policy No. 566, for ($2000), three thousand dollars, which Joseph A. Lieber, my husband, was insured.

A Tough Yarn.

The house of Brother Brand, of the Citizen and Gazette, Urbana, O., was entered on Wednesday night, of last week, and robbed of money and jewelry to the amount of three hundred dollars.—(Ex.)

Oshaw! brother B., that's rather too tough! You don't really expect any body to believe that a country editor ever had three hundred dollars! What business, we should like to know, has any editor with that much money? The idea is preposterous on the face of it.

We'd like to see any foolish burglar attempting to rob either of the editors of this place of three hundred dollars! Wouldn't you, brothers Marshall & Fongles?

A negro sued the proprietor of the Emmet House, in Chillicothe, for refusing to give lodging, claiming $100. The case was brought before a Justice, who gave a judgment of $6. The case was appealed to the Court of Common Pleas.

Meeting of Republican Candidates.

The meeting of Republican candidates, held last Monday, was attended by nearly all the candidates. Arrangements were made for tickets, poll-books, etc., for the Primary Election. The general opinion of the candidates was that the vote at the Primary Election will be large—probably two thirds of a full vote.

Our readers who saw the beautiful Arabian horse belonging to Forepangh's circus, will regret to hear of his death. The West Union Sci-on says:

"We learn that the fine trick horse belonging to Adam Forepangh's show, died in Aberdeen on Sunday. After the performance at that place, on Saturday, the horse was taken to the river to bathe, which occasioned lung fever and death. The horse was valued at $5,000."

Our readers who are interested in neighboring county fairs, would do well to clip out this list, and preserve it.

COLORED FOLKS' PIC-NIC.—This

The colored people of this place and vicinity will hold a Pic-Nic on Friday, 25th inst. There will be an address by Rev. E. C. Campbell, and in the afternoon a Base Ball Match between the "Wild Tigers" of Hillsboro, and the "Red Jackets" of Adams County.

An American clergyman writes this: "London has what it calls Sunday schools, but they are generally only a milder form of inquisition. The school of Dr. Cummings' church was without picture or pleasant sight, and had thirty-seven scholars. The Spurgeon school is a sepulchre. The seats are narrow and without backs, and remind one of the Irishman's remark on a fine cemetery, that he thought it a "very healthy place to be buried in."

Home Correspondence.

From Sinking Spring.

Elopement in Pike County.—Death of Mr. Daniel Garman.

SINKING SPRING, Aug. 10, 1871.

MR. EDITOR:—On the 2d inst, a young man named Powless, and a Miss Nace, of an adjoining township in Pike county, eloped, to the great consternation of the girls of the place.

The loving couple to Squire McCoy's farm, where they had taken a different course through Adams county into Highland, on the hunt of a preacher.—When they got to Rev. J. H. Garman's residence they learned that he had gone to meet his brother, who was very sick. They followed him up, however, and got married, and then, I suppose, went on their way rejoicing.

Mr. Daniel Garman died on the 4th inst. of Typhoid fever. He was a son of Peter Garman, one of the first settlers of this county. He was getting pretty well in years, had been twice married, and leaves a wife and a large family of children (some of them small) to mourn their loss. He was a member of the Dunkard Church, and in good standing.
